

EDUTEST: A Leading Examination Solution Provider

Sureshchandra Arya, an ingenious philanthropist's vision of reorienting the methods of delivering and managing tests led to the establishment of EDUTEST. Launched as a Paper-Pencil-Based Testing Solutions company which in the fullness of time transmuted into a leading examination solution provider, advancing high levels of reliability, quality and security for consistently delivering large tests for the last 38 years. This legacy is further getting on in the world under the leadership of his daughter industry doyen Mrs. Jaya Arya. Their endeavour has worked towards facilitating the users with exams that enables them to measure their skills, knowledge and attitude and to make sure that the purpose is well executed, the company corroborates in a mindful and an innovative synthesis of the précised amount of expertise, guidance, execution, customer service and complete solutions in crafting out the functional tests for Authoring & Banking, Design & Development, and Administration. In essence, EDUTEST is the Digital Examination Solution providing firm that imparts end-to-end services to compose and schedule examination, including the conception of both online and offline assessments, tracking attendance, creating exam schedules, hall tickets, exam & question analyses, and result generations and so and so forth. It is the ultimate choice for east test booking, high quality tests, wide test delivery footprint and large scale assessments. "EDUTEST is ministered by a group of industry oracles who have vast experience across industry. Our in-depth and cross—disciplinary knowledge and understanding is the integral aspect that has enabled us conduct various exams or tests in this platform. In these three decades, we have dedicated the required amount of time to analyse and frame error-free solutions that guarantees success in whatever test the user decide to undertake," narrates Jaya Arya, Director & CEO, EDUTEST.

Its Key Functions

The organization's impeccable services are availed by several Secondary Education Boards, Universities, All India & State Level Recruitment Boards and Bodies that are into conducting Entrance Tests on National as well as State Level. To remain true to its objective, EDUTEST has pooled resources with expert within the nation and across the seas. Features such as the Anti-Cheat, CCTV Surveillance, Biometric Authentication, Facial Detection Technology, Secured Testing Environment, top-notch assessment programs, authentic testing instruments and the ability to manoeuvre in 20 Indian, eight foreign languages and a network of over 1,500 certified test administrators across the country has secured it an impressionable image in the ecosystem, making it the most preferred digital examination solution providers.

"The sole purpose of the EDUTEST's recruitment examination services is to assist government in organizations, PSUs and PSBs conduct efficient paper and computer-based recruitment tests End-to-End Assessment Solutions, Exam Administration Solutions," mentions Maya Patankar, Chief Operating Officer, EDUTEST.

Maya Patankar,
Chief Operating Officer

EDUTEST lends a helping hand to the public and government organizations in carrying through recruitment tests to single out skilled talents

Towards a Bright Future

For decades, EDUTEST has hold on to the top position being the best foremost Paper-Pencil-Based Testing Solution institute, having served more than 100 premier customers in India and on boarded 1600+ customers, conducted over 850 million exams and is associated with above 1100 experts worldwide. In its attempt towards perfection, the company has procured certifications such as ISO 9001 Certified Process, ISO 27001 Certified Process, and CMMI Level 5 Certified Process.

For the future time, EDUTEST is determined to understand and satiate the requisites connected with the genuine piloting of tests globally with the use of technology and human expertise. "At the moment, we are working round the clock to figure out measures that will help us to counterbalance the time wasted due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Our constant endeavour will be to maintain the veracity and authenticity of the exams organized under our guardianship," she concludes.

Jaya Arya,
Director & CEO